VERSAILLES REIGNS IN THE INTERNATIONAL MARKET

The Epic Drama Series Hits A High Sold Into Over 135 Countries and Counting

Versailles, season 2

MONTREAL, APRIL 4, 2016 – Versailles, scripted drama series sensation co-produced by Incendo, Zodiak Fiction, Capa Drama, and Canal+ continues to expand its global footprint. With additional international acquisitions by Amazon Prime in the UK, Russia's free-to-air broadcaster Channel One and Sony Pictures Television International Networks which will broadcast the first season on its pay TV channel Sony Entertainment Television in Russia and 15 countries in Eastern Europe, it is safe to say Versailles' global appeal is contagious.

"We are so proud of Versailles and thrilled to see that it has hit the mark making global strides with international audiences embracing the ambitiously modern take on the pre-French Revolution series," said Jean Bureau, President and CEO of Incendo. "Its success is a testament to the edgy period drama's global pull across territories."

The hit series will be debuting with RTP1 in Portugal and Icelandic National Broadcaster RUV and will also have a home in Latin America with Globosat Brazil and DIRECTV. In Canada, Versailles has enjoyed success on Super Channel and Super Écran, a Bell Media service.

Versailles is an ambitiously lavish Anglo-French drama that reaches new heights with the injection of a vibrant modernity into an era that put France at the heart of glamour, culture and fashion. Incendo's Jean Bureau and Ian Whitehead, Canadian Executive Producers (The Good Sister, Kept Woman), along with Showrunners Simon Mirren (Without A Trace, Criminal Minds), David Wolstencroft (Spooks, The Escape Artist), Claude Chelli (Braquo), Anne Thomopoulous (Rome, The Tudors) are all part of the globally acclaimed team that has brought Versailles to life. The creative players behind the dramatic series also reflect highly notable directors, France's Jalil Lespert (Yves St. Laurent) and Canadian's Daniel Roby (Louis Cyr). Following the worldwide success of season one, a second season is currently in production in Paris. Among the critically acclaimed directors involved is Canadian Louis Choquette (19-Two; Rumours; Le Gentleman).

On the same vein of Versailles' growing international scope, Incendo is also breaking international ground of its own. The Canadian leader in television production and distribution based in Montreal is on a roll with a recent boom of global accolades for its home grown productions at the Seoul International Drama Awards, Sichuan TV Festival's Gold Panda Awards, The Canadian Screen Awards and The South By South West Festival. Incendo is currently a finalist nominee at the Writers Guild of Canada's 2016 Screenwriting Awards for Kept Woman, written by Doug Barber & James Phillips.
