

Industry Update

» NOVEMBER 2020 ISSUE

WELCOME

Welcome to November's newsletter.

We have just completed the last of the special interest group (SIG), council, and board meetings for the 2020 year. Some smaller working groups are continuing to meet and carry on with projects, but on the whole these final meetings were a chance for the groups to reflect on the successes of the year and consider plans for the following year. If you were unable to make it to the meetings, I encourage you to think about your priorities or ideas for your respective interests and email them either directly to the SIG chairs or to FPANZ so we can pass them on to the chairs. The kick-off meetings early next year will be aiming to lock in the goals and projects for the 2021 year.

It is pleasing to see most of the SIG groups have made some great progress and have grown in size during the year, with attendance picking up now that we can offer a hybrid meeting environment. We will continue to offer video conferencing for all of our meetings, as this technology has increasingly been adopted by members during the course of the COVID pandemic. This is not only great for members outside of the main centres but also for the diversity of our SIGs, as the representation now also better reflects the membership base.

AGM Update

We have just completed the annual general meeting (AGM). During this meeting, we provided a brief summary of our AGM report. We also covered the formalities of being a not-for-profit association, and a few resolutions were presented and voted on by members. We required a quorum for this, and—as the records show—we exceeded the minimum number of members required to constitute a quorum for the AGM. The following resolutions were presented and voted on:

1. That the minutes of the 2019 AGM be approved.
2. That the 2019–2020 annual reports as circulated be adopted.
3. That the audited accounts for the year ending 30 June 2020 be adopted.
4. That Crowe be re-appointed as the association's auditors for the year ending 30 June 2021.

All resolutions were unanimously passed by the members present at the AGM or by way of the proxy votes submitted to the chair to cast. I would like to thank those who attended in person (no small feat in Auckland), those who attended via Zoom, and those who read the AGM report and sent in proxy votes. The AGM report will be uploaded to the website in the next week or so, but just email us to request one if you would like a copy before then.

FPANZ PLATINUM MEMBERS

This month, we have updated the Fire Alarm Equipment register, issue 5, revision 6. If you use this, please download the latest version. Next year, we will be rolling out our web-based register, first with the passive register, then all FPANZ registers will follow to the new platform.

Employee Membership Survey

We recently sent out a short survey to members to gauge their thoughts on employment for the coming 18 months. Your responses will assist with some of our projects and plans that clearly need to be revisited and due diligence carried out for a post-COVID environment. We sent this survey to the primary contact of each member company because we only want one response from each company to protect the integrity of the data collected. If you have received but not completed the survey, please do have your say on this important topic. If you have not received the survey, maybe it is in the spam filter or maybe you are not listed as the primary contact for your company. If you wish to check this, please get in touch so we can confirm who we sent it to and reissue it if necessary. We intend to seek more member engagement via short surveys to get feedback from members who can't make it to SIG meetings, so if you get surveys in the future, be sure to have a read and send your responses so we can hear the voices of as many members as possible in the development and running of the association.

Membership Process

As with any organisation, we need to ensure we manage the growth of the association and its long-term objectives match the needs of our long-term, current, and future members. As I mentioned in October's newsletter, we are reviewing both the process and membership levels now and holding off on processing new memberships until this is complete. The board has agreed in principle to some minor changes in the membership application process, and these changes are now being drafted for legal review. Once this is complete, we will re-start processing new applications under the new procedures.

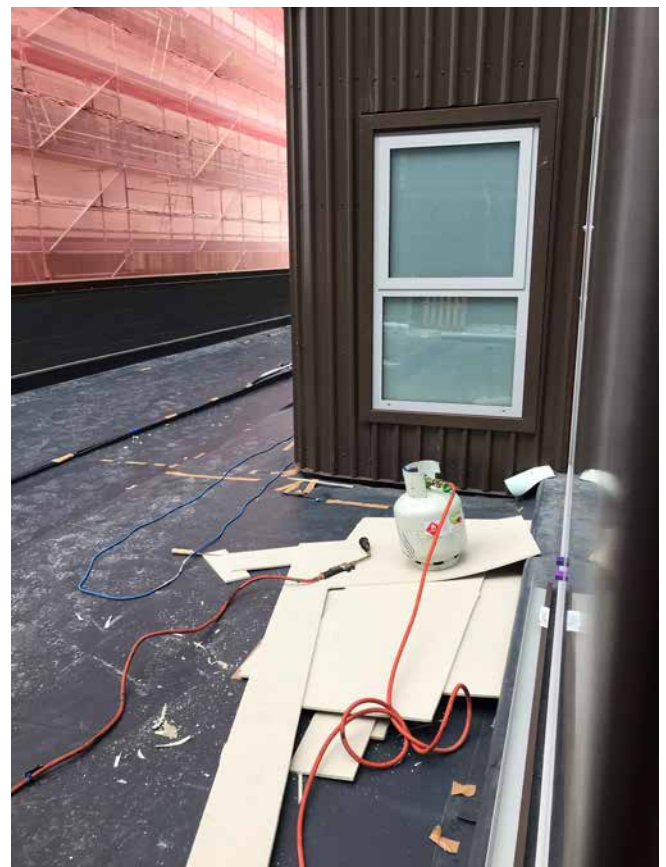

Managing growth and direction is an important part of any organisation, and FPANZ is no different. With the success and achievements we have delivered in the past few years, we are seeing significant increases in enquiries about and applications to be part of this organisation.

We also need to be able to uphold our values and commitments under the Code of Ethical Conduct and ensure that both current and future members of this professional body will also continue to do so.

In closing, we still have a busy few weeks ahead of us with the desire to close out some of our projects and to prepare others for starting in the new year. We will publish one final newsletter in December before closing the office for the year.

Until next month,

Regards,
Scott Lawson
Chief Executive Officer, FPANZ

One of our members was onsite recently and couldn't help but think some parts of the construction sector may not have learnt from the fire at the ICC in Auckland. No-one was supervising recent hot works, and there was no method of fighting any possible fire if it were to break out.

Evacuation Consultants SIG Update

› Author Phil Jackson – Evacuation Consultants SIG Chair

As the days get longer and we move into the summer season organisations may choose to use a marquee to host their events. Do not forget that due to their size the use of a marquee may trigger the need for an evacuation scheme, these can take up to a month to process. It is also a busy time for processing of permits and hazards, this should be taken into consideration when making an application.

The pandemic notice that is in place, is due to be reviewed on 23rd December, please keep an eye on the FENZ website to ensure you have the latest information with regard to the notice's status and your requirements.

We are also pleased to be able to announce that there will be a new temporary manager overseeing the fire information unit, we welcome Mike Shaw on board and look forward to working together. I would like to thank Pete Gallagher for his hard work and contributions, we wish him well in the future.

The dates for our SIG meetings next year will be published soon, don't forget to check the FPA website for updates to ensure you have these in your diaries. If you have any topics that you would like to see covered by the group, please get in touch.

Regards,

- Phil Jackson

Passive Fire Protection SIG Update

Author Justin McEntyre – Passive Fire Protection SIG Chair

2021 – The year ahead:

It's been a washing machine of a year for everyone this year, and many of you will be looking forward to beers, bbq and family time over summer break.

When we return fresh and ready in the New Year, we will be ready to rip into some toothy Passive Fire deliverables for the industry. Least of which we hope will be some roadshows around the country to start showcasing the good work that the Passive SIG has delivered in the past 12 – 36 months. Fingers crossed, anyway.

Roadshows have proven a very popular learning approach for the likes of Alarms & Sprinklers and I'm aware of many Contractors, Designers, Councils and Engineers around the country that would love an update and upskilling on where Passive Fire is at, and where it is going – particularly as there has been so much advancement in Passive Fire in NZ in the past few years.

Kind Regards,

Justin McEntyre
