PRESENTERS

› LOREN OLSEN

FPANZ Training and Technical Manager

Loren's experience in Passive Fire started back in 2015 during her employment with a Passive Fire Distributor in the NZ market. In 2016 the passive fire product brand changed distributors and Loren was given the opportunity to take on the role of Category Specialist covering a national footprint under the new distribution company. She worked with all aspects of the construction industry to provide solutions and education on Passive Fire.

Recently in October 2023, Loren was appointed to become the training and technical manager for FPANZ, where her role involves developing/ delivering training content, assessments, and presentations on Passive Fire. She is engaged in building the training and delivery aspects within FPANZ, as well as working with industry stakeholders on specific projects such as regulation review and industry guidelines.

› JUSTIN McENTYRE (Christchurch)

FPANZ President

Justin is the current President of FPANZ, Director and Owner/ Operator of Contego a Passive Fire Protection company based in the Lower South Island. He started his career as a Project Manager for a Main Contractor and has extensive experience in Design and Build projects. In recent years he has founded Contego and oversees design, specification, passive fire installations, Intumescent Paint application and IQP services.

Justin has been involved in the development of all of the initiatives FPANZ has produced in recent years including; NZQA Level 3 Passive Installer qualification, Intumescent Coatings Code of Practice, Passive Products Register, Position Statements, and Fire & Smoke Stopping Code of Practice.

› BEN BAKKER (Auckland)

FPANZ Passive SIG Chair

Meet Ben Bakker, a dedicated leader in New Zealand's passive fire protection industry. As the Chair of the FPANZ Passive Special Interest Group and Managing Director of Bakker PFI Ltd a Passive Fire Installation company in Auckland.

Starting in Human Resources, Ben's passion for safety led him to project management, specializing in passive fire installations across Wellington and Sydney. With a NZQA Level 3 Passive Fire Installer Certification and certifications to install fire stopping products from reputable suppliers in New Zealand. Ben brings a comprehensive understanding of industry best practices to his current role.

With a solid foundation built on experience, qualifications, and a steadfast commitment to safety, Ben Bakker continues to play a pivotal role in shaping the future of passive fire protection in New Zealand.
